Akron Sunday School Association— Officers Elected.

It is expected that 1,500 delegates will attend the Ohio State Sunday School association to be held in Akron June 5, 6 and 7, 1900.

SOME

Distinguished Visitors

Were Entertained by Buckley Post.

Annual Inspection Was Held Last Night.

W. R. U. Assisted in the Enter- tainment.

The Nomination of Officers Was Postponed.

The annual inspection of Buckley post, No. 12, G. A. R., was conducted Friday evening by Assistant Inspector J. C. Roland of Army and Navy post of Cleveland, assisted by Commander Josiah Johnson of the Forest City Post, Commander C. C. Shanklin of the Army and Navy post and Commander Edgar Couch of Memorial post.

Fifty members of the Cleveland posts and a few officials from Ashland were present and enjoyed an evening of rare entertainment after the inspection. Prof. W. A. Putt, with Mrs. Clara Smith Collins as accompanist, sang two beautiful vocal selections, which were received with favor.

Mrs. Sarah M. E. Battles welcomed the guests in behalf of the Woman's Relief Corps.

The guests then repaired to the banquet room, where a splendid spread awaited them. After the supper Mr. Newton Chalker delivered an address of welcome. Mr. J. H. Seymour acted as master of ceremonies, and introduced State Commander T. R. Shinn of Ashland, as the first speaker. He stated that the condition of the department at the present time was excellent, stating that the live posts would show an increase in membership by the next annual report. He also commended the efficient work done by the 273 Relief Corps in Ohio.

The other speakers were Inspector J. C. Roland of Army and Navy post, No. 187; Col. J. O. Winship, Judge Advocate of the Department of Cleveland; Commander Edgar Couch of Memorial post; Commander Josiah Johnson of Forest City post; Commander C. C. Shanklin of Army and Navy post; Major H. A. Kasson and Judge N. D. Tibbals of Akron.

"America" was sung in chorus and the remainder of the evening was spent in sociability.

ROSY COLOR.

Produced By Postum Food Coffee.

"When a person rises from each meal with a ringing in the ears and a general sense of nervousness, it is a common habit to charge it to a deranged stomach."

"I found it was caused from drinking coffee, which I never suspected for a long time, but found by leaving off coffee that the disagreeable feelings went away."

"I was brought to think of the subject by getting some Postum Food Coffee, and this brought me out of the trouble."

"It is a most appetizing and invigorating beverage and has been of such great benefit to me that I naturally speak of it from time to time as opportunity offers."

"A lady friend complained to me that she had tried Postum, but it did not taste good. In reply to my questioning she said she guessed she boiled it about ten minutes. I advised her to follow directions and know that she boiled it 15 or 20 minutes, and she would have something worth talking about. A short time ago I heard one of her children say that they were drinking Postum now—a day, so I judged she succeeded in making it good which is by no means a difficult task."

"Tom O'Brien, the son of a friend who lives on Bridge st. was formerly a pale lad, but since he has been drinking Postum, has a fine color. There is plenty of evidence that Postum actually does 'make red blood,' as the famous trade mark says." Jno. Chambers, 9 Franklin st., Dayton, Ohio.

TO GET RICH

Soon Was an Irresistible Passion,

But the Passion Wasn't Satiated, and Money Lost Instead.

When the Franklin syndicate of Brooklyn, with Wm. F. Miller at its head, and Cecil Leslie, his private secretary, started out to do business, it was not to be conducted as a continuous joke. Money was wanted and money was to be made not only for the syndicate but also those who would contribute funds to the treasury—yes; the depositors were to get ten per cent a week on each dollar invested—520 per cent a year. Think of it!

And dollars rolled in fast and furiously. The money ever ebbed but never flowed.

After conducting the affairs of the syndicate in the endless chain system for a few short, prosperous months, the investors called the syndicate to order, and demanded the promised 10 per cent. But, bless you! the adamant syndicate, with its endless chain principles, would not sit down in meeting to any such proposition as returned cash in 10 per cent and 520 per cent. The syndicate presumed its association with the sinecure was too solid to permit of dislodgment, and so it just wouldn't "bough up."

Last chapter—Miller and his secretary under arrest. Citizens in Akron who were caught in the trap, 25; other Ohio cities whose residents were caught, Cleveland, Lima, Columbus and Woodstock.

There is a great lesson for young and old in the above.

Still in the Game.

Dr. R. B. Carter called at THE DEMOCRAT office this morning to inquire concerning the source of information in regard to his recent physical injury as stated in yesterday's DEMOCRAT. He insists that he never had a shoulder dislocated in his life, and in his recent football games has not received even so much as a scratch.
